Old business 00:17:48

Roger asks Linda what 1st item is on agenda for old business motions, Linda those are all old motions we have made in past & postponed to another week or to a committee, just put in agenda for moderator's information/option. Roger asks for a motion to bring up any old motions & hearing none – is there any other old business? Anyone have a report about Spamhaus that has been blocking our email? Bring up old business item Robert said was discussed – minutes of meetings, discussion in Florida about how to handle minutes for Florida Assembly meetings, recording every meeting and available to everyone, why translate audio into minutes, proof of meetings provide link to that meeting, need printed copy of minutes, voice recognition software converts recording into printed matter

00:22:16 Q&A Kerry (Utah) minutes are written short brief history of what happened during that meeting, easy reference for finding which meeting, when certain things happened, or someone was nominate without having to go through the whole recording, a simple record, index, short copy of minutes; 00:25:14 Tom (Alaska) good idea if 2-3 people would download recording save offline in case something happens to recording; 00:26:17 James (New Mexico) searchable key word summary be placed at head of each minutes for same reason quickly find what actually occurred on meeting without going through all minutes; 00:26:57 Gus (Arizona) have hard copy of minutes, should be brief synopsis of what happened as opposed to every word, if we have 'emf' we will have the hard copy; 00:27:45 Christiane (Arkansas) safe archive for hard copy in case something happens to recordings; 00:28:09 Marilyn hard copies posted on forum read ahead of time, not necessary to read out loud at meeting for approval because we have seen written minutes; 00:28:49 Tim (Pennsylvania) back up 3-4 places, should be archived on paper, hard copy, 2011-2013 Pennsylvania problem with Hague documents, 00:30:14 Dan (Michigan) assembly notes handwritten, typed, can't rely on recordings; 00:31:48 James (South Carolina) Step 1 assemble & take notes, use Skype?, Roger – people decide how, when, where to meet, requirement to make record to validate especially to defacto public officials that may raise questions; 00:34:43 Maria (Alaska) approve minutes-electronic voice recording, no ability to dispute those minutes, loose those minutes should have back up hand written copy, hand writing is prima fascia evidence made by man not electronically made by somebody that's not a man, have handmade common law notes; 00:36:04 Russ (North Carolina) we need a recording Secretary, listen to call, motion made, voted on, accepted, not accepted, someone nominated to position, committee was formed, need it in writing, have backups/support, Jim Wright in

National Assembly Meeting Minutes
